"the little paper"

VOLUME 9 NUMBER 25

Timely Tidbits ...

See You Next Month

Just a reminder that "the little paper" will be skipping its next issue (which would have come out on Friday, July 19) so that its hard-working staff can take a much-needed and well-deserved vacation. Look for the next issue on Friday, August 2.

Tax Refund Available

A recent decision by a Wayne County Circuit Court judge requires the County of Wayne to refund more than $7, according to local real-estate attorney Brian A. Oakley. The refunds were ordered as a result of an overcharge on County real-estate-transfer taxes since 1990.

Oakley suggests that anyone who has sold property located in Wayne County between the dates of January 11, 1990, and May 10, 1996, should look into this refund further.

"In actuality," he explained, "the individual refund amounts will probably not be great – 20 cents per $500 of sale price plus two-percent interest." For instance, a person who sold a home for $100,000 during this period would be entitled to $40 plus interest.

According to Oakley, Wayne County has been charging 40 cents more than any other county in the State for each $500 of sale price.

Those interested in collecting their refund must go to 415 Clifford in downtown Detroit. The Tax Refund Center may be reached at (313) 224-0696.

Women Wanted

The YWCA is looking for six women who represent the heart and soul of western Wayne County for its 1996 Women of Achievement Award. A winner will be chosen in each of these categories: arts/communications, business/industry, government/law, profession; volunteer service, and young women. Nominations must be received by September 16, 1996. For nomination forms, call the YWCA at (313) 561-4110.

Romulus Group Home Charged with Medicaid Fraud, Says Attorney General

Among those charged with Medicaid fraud are S. Howard Homes, Inc., the operators of this Romulus group home, located at 9650 Tobine.

Michigan Attorney General Frank
J. Kelley and Department of Community Health Director James K. Haveman, Jr., recently announced that charges of Medicaid fraud have been filed against three individuals and three corporations operating group homes throughout southeastern Michigan. The charges were filed in 32-B Municipal Court in Grosse Pointe Park and 36th Judicial Court in Detroit.

Those named in Attorney General Kelley's complaints, and the charges they face, are:

- Shirley Howard-Coates, age 50, of Grosse Point Park – three counts of conspiracy to commit Medicaid fraud, five counts of conspiracy to obtain money under false pretenses over $100, and nine counts of obtaining money under false pretenses over $100.
- Mary Lee Patillo, age 53, of Detroit – four counts of conspiracy to commit Medicaid fraud, four counts of conspiracy to obtain money under false pretenses over $100, and six counts of obtaining money under false pretenses over $100.
- Joseph Samuel Coates, Jr., age 48, of Detroit – one count of conspiracy to commit Medicaid fraud, one count of conspiracy to obtain money under false pretenses over $100, and one count of obtaining money underfalse pretenses over $100.

- S. Howard Homes, Inc., Grosse Pointe Park, which operates three group homes (Linda Vista Court Alternative Intermediate Services [AIS], Belleville; Truman AIS, Rockwood; and Shook-Tobine Community Living Facility [CLF], Romulus) – three counts of conspiracy to commit Medicaid fraud, four counts of conspiracy to obtain money under false pretenses over $100, and eight counts of obtaining money under false pretenses over $100.
- Patillo, Inc., Detroit, which operates two group homes (Kurtz Road AIS, Holly; and Garretson CLF, Oxford) – three counts of conspiracy to commit Medicaid fraud, three counts of conspiracy to obtain money under false pretenses over $100, and four counts of obtaining money under false pretenses over $100.
- El-Shaddai, Inc., Grosse Pointe Park

 one count of conspiracy to obtain money under false pretenses over $100 and one count of obtaining money under false pretenses over $100.

The charges are the result of a lengthy investigation by Kelley's Health Care Fraud Division, Department of Community Health, and Royal Macabees Insurance Company of Southfield.

The investigation uncovered two schemes supposedly developed by the defendants to illegally obtain Medicaid funds and insurance benefits. In the first scheme, the defendants allegedly billed Medicaid for employees providing direct care to patients when, in fact, the employees were only providing administrative functions.

In the second scheme, it is alleged that the defendants purchased life-insurance policies from the Royal Macabees Insurance Company on behalf of their employees, naming themselves as the beneficiary, when, in fact, the employees named in the policy were seriously ill, noneligible individuals staying at the group homes.

Said Kelley, "In this case alone, over $200,000 may have been illegally obtained. It is reprehensible when someone illegally takes money intended to help those in need. Medicaid fraud victimizes all taxpayers in Michigan. I fully intend to prosecute these types of cases to the fullest extent possible."

Haveman said: "The discovery of this fraud through a department audit and the joint investigation with the Attorney General's office should serve as a strong reminder that we will not tolerate any attempt to take advantage of vulnerable people. The overwhelming majority of community-based providers are compassionate and conscientious care-givers. But, if a provider tries to take advantage of those in their care, we will discover it, investigate it, and prosecute it."

Council Leadership Needed, Says Reader

Letter to the Editor:

Isn't politics a wonderful thing? That old saying, "It's not what you know, it's who you know" really applies in politics.

Romulus is a really good example of that saying, based on our last general election. It's clear that Romulus as a whole did not decisively know who they wanted as Mayor; however, it was clear that ex-Mayor Beverly McAnally's support was still strong enough to get one Councilperson elected who is not helping Romulus. This letter is not directed to that problem, but more to an issue of who should have been on Council.

After watching the Council for six months or so, it is clear to me we need more leadership there. Councilpersons Mary Collins, Bill Crova, and Jimmie Raspberry are clearly leaders. Councilman Mike Prybyla tries hard to follow well. Councilman Randy Gear does his best, but needs to improve and act more professionally. I'm not sure what Councilman Bill Wadsworth is doing, but he is not leading. So we have three leaders, two followers, and Wadsworth. That means the leaders are outnumbered by others who are either caught up in political bickering originating from McAnally, or they just truly do not know how to run a city.

It's so simple to see that, where political bickering goes on, nothing useful ever gets accomplished. We see this in Washington with President Clinton and the Congress. We see it in Romulus with some on Council who simply will not work with Mayor Bill Oakley.

What am I trying to say? It's sad that as early as six months into this term, it's clear that nothing really useful will happen in Romulus for at least a year and a half. The first improvement that should be made is that Council should keep all of the personal attacks out of the Council meetings. The second improvement needed involves finding some leaders. Two individuals who did not make it onto the Council who truly are leaders are Robert McLachlan and Gwen Sibert. They are occasionally loud and verbose, but they are leaders and they obviously care deeply for the people of Romulus. We need their strength, and I hope the people in Romulus will see through those on Council who can't lead and allow Ms. Sibert and Mr. McLachlan to help Romulus with their leadership skills and their intelligence. All one had to do was listen during Candidates' Night to determine who the leaders amongst us are.

Romulus seriously needs a council full of leaders who will work with the Mayor. The antics at Council over the last six months are an embarrassment to this city. If the Council can't lead, then they should step back and follow our mayor.

RECAP Sells Emotion, Not Facts, Says Reader

Letter to the Editor:

I was once a participant in RECAP (Romulus Environmentalists Care About People), but I am not any longer because they are not fighting "the good fight."

It seems to me that this is RECAP's motto: "We can't fight EDS (Environmental Disposal Systems) on a technical level, so all we can do is try to destroy the credibility of the people involved." This sounds a lot like, oh well, if we can't fight on the basis of the facts, we'll just speculate, accuse, and make things up, no matter who we hurt. This is what has been and is still going on in Romulus.

Again and again, we see the same sort of behavior. RECAP refuses to deal with facts, only emotion. Like many other cultist groups, there are a limited few who control the flow of information to its members. The followers generally do not question those in control.

What happens when someone questions those in control? What happens when someone asks a question that those in control do not approve of?

Well, let me tell you a little story. A group of people in Taylor were approached by RECAP to join in "the good fight" against EDS. RECAP came to Taylor and presented a video about a deepwell facility in Winona, Texas. This video showed a series of atrocities to animals and humans that RECAP said were due to the well there. We listened to RECAP and then asked for information on the well from EDS. After reviewing EDS' information, we asked EDS about the Winona, Texas deepwell. We also asked EDS if they could take a group from Taylor, including any interested City officials, down to Winona, Texas, to see the truth about Winona.

In February, a small group of people (including myself) made a trip to Winona, Texas, to investigate claims of illness, deaths, and birth defects in both humans and animals, and the contamination of water and soil. Keep in mind that all of these people were in fear of what they might encounter. Much to our surprise, things were a lot different then described by RECAP. We expected the well to be oozing green, smelly sludge and odors. Surprise, surprise – or was it? RECAP knew the truth – and that truth was not what the group has been spreading around.

Mrs. Glazer, the wonderful lady in Texas who is fighting the project there, told us that she had specifically told R.P. Lilly (one of RECAP's leading spokespersons) not to go around telling people that all of these problems were due to the deepwell. The problems at the Winona, Texas facility are not due to the deepwell, but due to a separate facility on the same property that reprocesses dangerous solvents, like Michigan Recovery (EQ) does on Van Born Road in Romulus, Michigan. As we saw it, the problems at the solvent recovery facility are due to loading, unloading, and storage procedures associated with the solvents, not the deepwell.

Proverbs 15:14 – Awise man is hungry for truth, while a mocker feeds on trash. Proverbs 12:19 – Truth stands the test of time; lies are soon exposed.

Proverbs 11:11 – The good influences of godly citizens cause a city to prosper, but the moral decay of the wicked drives it downhill.

Proverbs 6:14 – He is always thinking up new schemes to swindle people. He stirs up trouble everywhere.

Psalms 120:2 – Deliver me, O Lord, from liars.

It is clear, Mr. Lilly, that you don't want the well, but don't lie to the people about whether it can be done safely and don't mislead the citizens of Romulus and Taylor. Your righteous attitude and behavior is pathetic.

Very truly yours, Mrs. Susan Cislo Taylor

U.S. ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY PUBLIC NOTICE UNDERGROUND INJECTION CONTROL PROGRAM

PURPOSE OF PUBLIC NOTICE

The purpose of this notice is to notify the public that a permit reapplication has been submitted by Environmental Disposal Systems, Inc. (EDS), for the existing Well #1-20 in Romulus, Michigan. EDS has also submitted two new permit applications for two commercial hazardous waste injection wells (Wells #1-12 and #2-12), also to be located in Romulus, Michigan.

AUTHORITY

The Safe Drinking Water Act (SDWA) requires the United States Environmental Protection Agency (USEPA) to administer Underground Injection Control (UIC) programs in states which do not have approved UIC programs. Michigan has not acquired primacy over the UIC program, therefore USEPA is administering the UIC program pursuant to regulations at 40 CFR Part 147. The operator is seeking permission of the USEPA for permits pursuant to 40 CFR Parts 144 and 146, under the procedures set forth in 40 CFR 124.5.

FACTS

EPA Permit #MI-163-1W-0006: One existing Class I commercial hazardous waste disposal well (Well #1-20) owned by Environmental Disposal Systems, Inc., of Romulus, Michigan, located in Wayne County: SE 1/4, Section 20, T3S, R9E; located near the intersection of Wahrman and Northline roads, Romulus, Michigan.

EPA Permits #MI-163-1W-0007 and #MI-163-1W-0008: Two proposed Class I commercial hazardous waste disposal wells (Wells #1-12 and #2-12) to be owned by Environmental Disposal Systems, Inc., of Romulus, Michigan, located in Wayne County: SE 1/4, Section 12, T3S, R9E; located on Citrin Drive off of Inkster Road, Romulus, Michigan.

The applications are for the commercial disposal of hazardous waste through injection wells. The wells would inject into a confined interval approximately 4000 feet below ground surface.

Permit Writer: David Werbach (313) 886-4242.

A copy of each application is available for viewing at: Romulus Public Library, 11121 South Wayne Road, Romulus, Michigan 48174. Summer viewing hours are: Monday-Tuesday-Wednesday, 10 a.m. - 8 p.m.; Thursday, 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.; and Friday, noon - 5 p.m.

PUBLIC COMMENTS

The USEPA encourages written comments on these permit applications. Please send any written comments to the address listed below. A public notice will be sent out and a public hearing held before any permit decision is made regarding this site. Please send your name to the address below if you wish to be added to or removed from the mailing list for either site. All data submitted by the applicant for these permit actions is part of the administrative records and is available for review between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. at the address listed below. It is recommended that you telephone the Permit Writer before visiting the Region V office, or for obtaining information on this notice.

Jacqueline Kennedy Stamps Are a Piece of Camelot

Just weeks after a small group of the rich and famous paid over $34 million for 1195 lots from the Jacqueline Kennedy auction, collectors are suddenly racing to obtain a Limited Edition set of nine commemorative postage stamps that were just issued in honor of the former First Lady.

"This commemorative stamp issue may be the only Jacqueline Kennedy collectible that is within reach of the average collector," stated John Van Emden of the International Collectors Society, worldwide distributor of the stamps. "And this is only because the low issue price was established before the recent auction."

Each of the nine colorful stamps has a face value of 200 Francs, and is about four times the size of a regular U.S. stamp. They are legal for postage in The Republic of Chad, and are accepted by every postal authority around the world.

"The auction proved these stamps are clearly priced way below what collectors would be willing to pay for them, but in fairness to collectors, we will be honoring our original issue price until out supplies run out," Van Emden added. "In fact, we opted for a first-come, firstserved sale instead of an auction for these Limited Editions to give everyone an equal chance of obtaining a set."

Experts are already predicting that this stamp issue may be the fastest selling collectible stamp ever. "They're really quite stunning with all the colorful images printed together on the same commemorative sheet," he said.

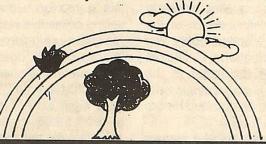

Gotta have 'em? They are available for a short time at their original issue price of $9.95 (plus $3 postage and handling) for the complete set of nine different stamps. Buyers also receive a numbered Certificate of Authenticity attesting to their Limited Edition status. The most you can buy is six sets. Contact The International Collectors Society, 10045 Red Run Boulevard, Suite 170PRY, Owings Mills, MD 21117, or call toll free: 1-800-671-0070. □

About 1.6 Million Michiganians To Travel on July Fourth

The 1996 Fourth of July holiday is sure to spark fireworks as motorists move in large numbers to popular vacation destinations. In fact, Michigan is well on track to earning $6 billion in annual tourism revenues, predicted earlier in the season.

AAA Michigan projects 1.6 million Michiganians will travel 100 miles or more from home during the holiday, which traditionally represents the peak of the summer travel season. Sixtyseven percent of those travelers are heading to a destination within Michigan, an increase of two percent over last year. The majority, 88%, will travel by auto, truck, or recreational vehicle.

AAA Michigan's mid-June survey of 500 Michigan residents found that, while Statewide self-serve regular unleaded fuel prices are about a nickel per gallon more than last year at this time, only eight percent said that the higher prices would impact their travel plans.

As of June 24, the per-gallon price for self-serve regular unleaded averaged $1.247 outstate, $1.230 in Metro Detroit.

With Independence Day falling on a Thursday this year, 37% of those surveyed said they will extend their vacation beyond the Fourth of July holiday weekend, to a week's vacation or longer. Most of the Michigan travel destinations will be in the lower peninsula (70%), and these are most likely to be in the Northwest (41%) or Northeast (23%) regions.

Asurvey of AAA Michigan branches and travel agencies shows Mackinac Island topping the list for requested information and Triptik routings for Michigan travelers so far this year. In 1996, top summer destinations in Michigan include (in descending order):

- Mackinac Island
- Frankenmuth/Birch Run
- Traverse City
- Holland
- Greenfield Village/Henry Ford Museum
- Charlevoix
- Grand Rapids
- Saugatuck
- Sault Ste. Marie/Soo Locks
- Tahquamenon Falls

The official 102-hour holiday period begins at 6 p.m. Wednesday, July 3, and runs to midnight Sunday, July 7.

During last year's July Fourth holiday period of the same duration, 18 people died in 18 crashes on roads across the State. That's down from the 1994 holiday, when 19 people died in 17 crashes. Half of last year's fatal crashes were alcohol-related and, of the 18 persons killed, 13 had safety belts available for use and only three were belted.

For the 32nd year, AAA Michigan's "Bring 'Em Back Alive!" Holiday News Service will help steer holiday travelers to their destinations throughout the July Fourth holiday period with hourly traffic, safety, and tourism bulletins airing on 140 Statewide radio stations. This summer, AAA Michigan and Henry Ford Health System are encouraging drivers to "Stay Alert, Arrive Alive!" as part of a Statewide campaign against drowsy Congresswoman Rivers Goes Live on the Web!

Want to use the Internet to find out who your Representative is and what she does in Congress?

Does your child need information about the Federal Government for a school project?

Need help getting tickets to the White House for your trip to Washington, D.C.?

Now, a range of congressional services and information are right at people's fingertips. United States Congresswoman Lynn Rivers has just gone on-line with the 13th District Congressional Homepage on the World Wide Web. The address is: www.house.gov/rivers/

Through it, Net surfers can access information about Congresswoman Rivers, her work in Washington, the congressional committees she serves on, the range of constituent services available to the 13th District, a profile of the District, and more.

Hotkeys at the site give surfers easy access to a number of Federal Government websites - including the Library of Congress - and an "Upcoming Events" link keeps constituents posted about upcoming coffee hours, forums, and town hall meetings with the congresswoman.

The 13th District Congressional Homepage is designed to give constituents a quick, easy way to access Government information and resources. It is a service provided to all members of Congress through House Information Resources so that Representatives may better serve the public.

Celebrate a Safe July 4th: Observe Fireworks Laws

By Dorothy Nesler

As we approach our nation's 220th birthday, The Romulus Newswould like to remind everyone of the State ordinance which defines both legal and illegal fireworks. Illegal fireworks found in the City of Romulus will be confiscated, held for evidence, and destroyed at a later date.

Remember: The purpose of this law is not to hinder your Independence Day celebration, but to make sure that your holiday isn't spoiled by an accident involving dangerous, illegal fireworks.

Section 750.243a (1a) of the Michigan Penal Code (Act 328 of 1931) defines "fireworks" as "...a device made from explosive or flammable compositions used primarily for the purpose of producing a visible display or audible effect, or both, by combustion, deflagration, or detonation. . . . " This definition includes both Class B fireworks, which are illegal, and Class C fireworks, which are legal.

The legal Class C fireworks consist of "... toy smoke devices, toy caps containing not more than .25 grains of explosive mixture, toy propellant devices, cigarette loads, trick matches, trick noise makers, smoke candles, smoke pots, smoke grenades, smoke signals, hand signal devices, Very signal cartridges, sparklers, explosive auto alarms, and other similar devices." [Sec. 750.243a (1c)]

Illegal, Class B fireworks are "... toy torpedoes, railway torpedoes, firecrackers or salutes that do not qualify as Class C fireworks, exhibition display pieces, aeroplane flares, illuminating projectiles, incendiary projectiles, incendiary grenades, smoke projectiles or bombs containing expelling charges but without bursting charges, flash powders in inner units not exceeding 2 ounces each, flash sheets in interior packages, flash powder or spreader cartridges containing not more than 72 grains of flash powder each, and other similar devices." [Sec. 750.243a (1b)]

Other illegal items include a blank cartridge, blank cartridge pistol, toy cannon, toy cane, or toy gun in which explosives are used; an unmanned balloon which requires fire underneath to propel it and is not moored to the ground while aloft; and firecrackers, torpedoes, skyrockets, roman candles, daygo bombs, bottle rockets, whistling chasers, rockets on sticks, or other fireworks that are of similar construction.

Please use safety sense, and enjoy a safe, happy holiday.

Happy Birthday to You ★ Happy Birthday to You ★ Happy Birthday Dear America ★ ★ Happy Birthday to You! ★

Judge William J. Szlinis

of 34th District Court Would like to wish the citizens of Romulus a safe and happy Independence Day.

On Independence Day, remember those who have paved our way to freedom over the past 220 years of our Nation's history.

Sincerely, Bill Oakley Mayor City of Romulus

Senior Profile: Margaret Maciejewski

By Linda Norman, Senior Citizens Program Coordinator for the City of Romulus

I'd like to introduce you to a very special lady. Margaret Maciejewski is quiet, soft spoken, observant, helpful, caring, cheery, and a friend. She was born in Detroit as Margaret Burke. She recalls moving around a lot, caring for an invalid mother, and, at 19, meeting the man who would, in time, change her whole life - Edward Margaret met Edward at a dance, where their attraction for each other led to a three-year courtship; ultimately, they wed. They spent very special moments together with their four daughters, and had a great life.

Tragedy struck again, however, and Margaret spent the last 10 years of married life caring for Howard, who, due to illness, became extremely handicapped. She told me that the happiest time in her life was when her beloved husband, kids, and herself were together. But she never regretted anything: "You just take each day as it comes. Thank the Lord at night and each morning for the upcoming day," says Margaret.

For 14 years, Margaret drove a Romulus school bus while caring for her family. She does everything with a 100% dedication, whether it be raising kids, driving a bus, working on ceramics projects, volunteering at the Center, or being a friend. With all she does for her family (four children, eight grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren), she still has time and energy left to help others.

Margaret is one of my very special volunteers. I remember a tour

that was cancelled due to bad weather. She didn't wait for me to ask for help; rather, she came in one morning, told me that she would like to help, and wanted to know if she could call all 44 people on the cancelled trip to give them the new trip date and time. She dropped by the Center on numerous occasions to offer her assistance, and on any special program I plan, she's the first to say, "I'll be there. What time do you need me to start?" No matter what the program or project I have, she's one of the first to arrive and the last to leave.

I have never heard Margaret say a bad word about anyone, complain, get upset, or be anything but kind and caring. She has become like my right hand, and I can't imagine having any program or project without her. Margaret is truly a special person and I consider her a dear friend as well.

"Life Is Too Short . . . "

Editor's note: "Life Is Too Short" is the second in a series of biographies on local senior citizens written by Romulus High School English teacher Cathy Uhring's ninth-grade students and published in the student booklet, Open Up the Doors of the Past. Watch for more biographies in future issues of "the little paper."

By Susan Suchan and Nicole Sharp
We were picked to interview Thelma Griffin. We discussed many topics with

The first topic that we discussed was family. Thelma was born on February 10, 1917 in Mingo, Ohio. She had two brothers and two sisters, but only one brother and one sister are alive today. Thelma's parents were very old-fashioned and very strict; but they were good parents. They were ordinary farmers in Ohio, but then they moved to Brighton. When Thelma was born, her mother was 21 and her dad was 23.

Thelma was married twice. The first time she was married she and her husband had one child. He passed away. Then four years later she remarried and had three children by her second husband. The way she met him was through friends at school. When Thelma first was married, she was 18 and her first husband was 23. Thelma was married, a mother, and a widow all by the age of 21. Thelma said that she had a fun wedding because she eloped. She said it broke her mom's heart because it was out of town, and she was not there; but then her mom got over it.

Thelma said her life was hard when she was married because it was hard taking care of her children who she loves very much. Thelma said the best thing was her children. When Thelma had her first kid she was 19. Thelma had good children. They all were different. They all had different problems, but one thing they all did was show off to their friends. Thelma raised her kids differently than her mom. Thelma was not so strict. Her kids helped around the house because she was working. Thelma thought it was pretty fun raising her kids because they would have their friends over, and they would play cards too. Thelma said the worst part about her kids was when they were going to drive. Otherwise she didn't have any problems. Another thing that Thelma said was that parents should not spoil their kids and give them everything they want. Thelma feels children control their parents today because parents give their children everything. She also said that now the children think that they can do whatever they want to do.

Thelma attended Tighten High School in Mingo, Ohio. She was one of the many lucky people who finished high school; only 18 graduated when she did. Herfavorite subjects were math and language. The subject that she hated the most was history. Thelma said that they would punish kids back then by having the students stand in a corner in the hall. Thelma had to walk to school. The advice Thelma would give today is to "stay in school and study hard."

Thelma said the most important invention of her lifetime was the television because she loves watching it. Before television Thelma would play games and just hang out. Now Thelma thinks the television is her life; she doesn't like the violence on television though. Thelma's favorite car was the 1965 Thunderbird because it was the best car on the road.

Thelma has had a job since she was young. At first she would baby-sit, then she became a waitress. Thelma's last job was a secretary. Thelma retired at the age of 55. She feels senior citizens should work for as long as they want to.

Thelma said that women are different today. When she was a teen women didn't work, they were housewives. Families were different, too. They stayed home more and friends came over. She also said that race relations were not as bad as it is now. She never thought about race as a kid.

Thelma said the historical event during her life was WWII. Her two brothers were in the war. She said everything was rationed during the war. She really liked Governor George Romney.

Thelma's dream was to become a nurse and to work at an office. Thelma has done everything that she wanted to. Thelma's recipe for a long life is to be yourself and nobody else. Her most successful things in life are her children, happiness, and traveling. The goals that Thelma gives teens today are to study, get an education, set goals, and manage your money. Life is too short, do not take many risks, but also do not lead a sheltered life.

We would like to thank Thelma for all her knowledge she gave to us. •

Sassy Seniors

By Mary E. Clark

Special thanks to Audry Moomaw, Manager of the Romulus Tower, and to Linda Norman, Senior Citizens Program Coordinator for the City of Romulus, for contributing information to this issue's "Sassy Seniors" column. (Note: For further information about events at the Senior Center, located at 36515 Bibbins, call 942-6852.)

Happy Birthday!

Best wishes for a wonderful birthday to those of my Tower neighbors born in the month of July: Ruby Cartwright, Helen Dobbins, Jessie Green, Juanita Johnson, Esther Lloyd, Rummie Mayle, Kamala Merriweather, Dorothy Spencer, Theresa Standhardt, Ethel Teegue, Thomas Vassallo, and Leatha Whitworth.

Closed for the Holiday

Just a reminder that the Romulus Senior Center will be closed on Thursday, July 4, in recognition of Independence Day.

Lunch with Seniors ... by Seniors ... for Seniors

Volunteers at the Romulus Senior Center invite the public to stop in at the Center between 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. (while supplies last) on Friday, July 5, to enjoy a luncheon featuring a select menu of modestly priced soup, salad, sandwich, and dessert fare. This once-amonth program – besides providing a pleasant excuse to get together with old and new friends – is a fund-raising project for volunteer activities.

Know Your Rights

As a Medicaid recipient or Medicare subscriber, are you aware of your rights? Do you know to what care you are entitled? Who you should call for help if you believe you aren't getting the proper medical attention? Whether or not you lose your medical benefits if you leave the country? These and many other questions will be answered at a free program to be held at the Romulus Senior Center at 10 a.m. on Thursday, July 18. Light refreshments will be served. Sign up at the Center.

Don't Be a Statistic

Did you know that one out of every three people will be the victim of a violent crime – with senior citizens and women the prime targets? Thankfully, there are ways that you can reduce your chances of becoming a crime statistic. To learn more about how you can protect yourself, plan to attend a free presentation to be given at the Romulus Senior Center at 1 p.m. on Monday, July 22. Sign up at the Center.

Potluck/Ice-cream Social

A Banana Beauty Contest will highlight the Center's next potluck affair, set for 2 p.m. on Friday, July 26. Dress your yellow friend as a baby, clown, fireman, or some other exotic or outlandish figure to try to win a prize in one of the following categories: glamorous, colorful, cute, and unusual. Later, you'll get to strip, peel, and eat your banana in makeyour-own banana splits. As always, bring a dish and bring a friend.

Special Trips

Seniors interested in more information about this or other special trips planned by the Romulus Senior Center should call Linda Norman at 942-6852.

Soaring Eagle Casino – No matter what the name of your game, Mt. Pleasant's Soaring Eagle Casino can accommodate your interests with its high-tech bingo hall and selection of slots and gaming tables. The $40 cost of the one-day trip – set for Friday, August 9 – covers transportation and dinner at a local restaurant.

Personal Transportation Service

Senior citizens who have no other means of transportation can take advantage of the Romulus Senior Center's personal transportation program. For a fee of $1, seniors can arrange to be taken anywhere within the City limits in order to conduct personal affairs such as doctor appointments, banking, or shopping. The service is available each Thursday from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. only, so it's best to make your reservation as far ahead as possible. Call 942-6852.

Ask the Attorney

Local attorney Brian A. Oakley will continue his free, twice-monthly "Ask the Attorney" service at the Romulus Senior Center on Tuesday, July 9, and Tuesday, July 30, from 3 to 5 p.m. Both walk-ins (36515 Bibbins) and call-ins (942-6852) are welcome.

Exercise Classes

The Romulus Senior Center's twice-weekly exercise program – held each Tuesday and Thursday from 9 to 10 a.m. – features light routines designed to increase flexibility and improve strength and tone. The Center recommends that all participants wear comfortable clothing, and urges anyone unused to physical exertion to consult a physician before joining the class.

Blood-pressure Checks

Romulus senior citizens can have their blood pressure checked, free of charge, at the Romulus Senior Center on Monday, July 8, from 11:45 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. No appointment necessary.

Sponsored by Environmental Disposal Systems, Inc. "committed to protecting Michigan's environment"

"Redeemer's Quartet" in Concert

The Redeemer's Quartet – (from left) Tim Yoakum of Monroe (planist), Lyle Millard of Southgate (bass), Jake Sammons of Wyandotte (baritone; songwriter), Adam Lockhart of Belleville (second tenor), and Michael Rushlow of Melvindale (tenor) – will make a concert appearance at the Community United Methodist Church (11160 Olive at Bibbins, Romulus) at 6 p.m. on Saturday, July 6. There is no admission charge, but a free-will offering will be taken. For more information, please contact the Church: 941-0736.
